

GREEN LEAF

Need to Know News for 1.25.16

- Get orders in now for SUPERBOWL events and Valentine's Day special requests.
- NEW California grown Avocados are in and supplies are steady!
- Good Quality : Roots: Beets, parsnips, turnips, rutabagas, plus organic Red and Rainbow Chard, Red Frill and baby mixed Kale, braising greens, chicories, all broccoli, white cauliflower, also Organic Black Spanish, Purple Daikon and Watermelon Radishes.
- Eggplant, Green Bells, Cucumbers, Zucchini, & Yellow Squash are limited and are strong markets because of persisting cold weather in Northern MX.
- Celery still is a crop in distress probably through February.
- All Cabbage remains in limited supply and pricey.
- Heads up on storage onions: now getting long in tooth and market rising. Good news is local organic Spring onions coming on next week.

New & Seasonal Items

New! Kalettes -cross between Red Kale and Brussels Sprouts. Very Versatile!

Can be sautéed, roasted, grilled or eaten raw. Unique item and new to the market. **expected in Weds.*

Organic Cress (Sausalito Springs-available Thursday)

Organic German Butterball Creamers (Coke Farms)

Organic Cauliflower (Coke Farms)

Young Ginger (Fiji)

Organic Dandelion Greens (Coke Farms)

Organic Nicasio Square Cheese (Nicasio Valley Cheese Co)

Gapping

Limited

Done

-Organic & Juice and County Line Harvest Baby Purple Carrots. Back in February.
-All Escarole except organic 5-pound hearts.

-Organic Sugar Pie Pumpkins, ending
-Long Island Cheese Pumpkins done

The Best Cheese & Specialty Items

If your New Year's resolution is to serve better cheese, you're in luck!

Through this week, we're featuring Deer Creek's Specialty Vat 17 Aged Cheddar. AA Grade Certified, this Wisconsin cheese will wow your customers with it's rich & creamy mouthfeel and toothsome sharpness. 2.5 pounds each.

